TUSCANY

The departure port in Tuscany opens up a world of opportunities waiting to be explored. From Marina Cala de' Medici, in the Castiglioncello/Rosignano Solvay area, you can set sail towards northern Corsica or the Tuscan Archipelago.Capraia is the closest island, while Elba is the largest and most famous. However, each island offers something special to discover and enjoy, both at sea and on land, with the authentic charm and flavour of Tuscany.

SICILY

The departure base is Marina di Portorosa, a modern and elegant marina located on the northern coast of Sicily. The marina offers a full range of facilities, including hotels, swimming pools, restaurants, a supermarket and bars. Portorosa is the closest departure point to the Aeolian Islands, just 15 nautical miles away. The nearest island, Vulcano, can be reached in just 2–3 hours of sailing. Surrounded by crystal-clear waters, the Aeolian Archipelago consists of seven stunning islands – Lipari, Panarea, Vulcano, Stromboli, Salina, Alicudi and Filicudi – as well as smaller islets and rocky outcrops. The archipelago is also home to two active volcanoes, located on the islands of Stromboli and Vulcano.

AMALFI COAST

The departure base is Marina d'Arechi, easily accessible and well connected to Salerno and Naples airports. It is the perfect starting point for sailing along the enchanting coves and picturesque villages of the Amalfi Coast, where you can go ashore to explore these hidden gems, savour local culinary specialities and shop for souvenirs. In Amalfi, a stop for a coffee and a traditional delizia al limone in one of the town's charming squares is a must. In Cetara, you can dine at traditional restaurants and enjoy local delicacies, including anchovies and the famous colatura di alici (anchovy sauce). Another unmissable destination is the exclusive and sophisticated Positano, where you can browse the renowned local ceramics shops. Sailing north, you can reach the Gulf of Sorrento and the Gulf of Naples, with its stunning islands of Capri, Ischia and Procida.

ITALY
CILENTO COAST

Marina d'Arechi, well connected to Naples and Salerno airports, is the ideal starting point for exploring the Cilento Coast. The first recommended stop is Baia degli Infreschi, with its crystal-clear waters and natural caves, perfect for a refreshing swim. The journey continues towards Palinuro, renowned for its golden beaches and the stunning Blue Grotto. Sailing north, you reach Acciaroli, a picturesque village beloved by Ernest Hemingway, where a stroll through its charming narrow streets and a coffee overlooking the sea are a must. Pioppi, known as the birthplace of the Mediterranean Diet, is another unmissable stop, ideal for enjoying a dinner of fresh seafood paired with local wines. Continuing south, you'll discover Agropoli, with its historic castle and scenic streets, offering easy access to the ancient temples of Paestum. A stop in Santa Maria di Castellabate offers the opportunity to explore artisan boutiques and enjoy gourmet dining by the sea.
End your journey in Acciaroli or Ascea, where you can unwind in the tranquillity of unspoilt nature and turquoise waters.

GRENADA, MARTINICA, GUADALUPA, ANTIGUA, ST. MARTIN

Grenada is NSS Charter's long-established base, a Caribbean paradise nestled between Trinidad and Tobago and Saint Vincent and the Grenadines. Our main base is located in St. George's, making it the ideal starting point for exploring the Windward Islands. It offers the perfect balance of relaxation and adventure for your Caribbean sailing holiday. This enchanting destination combines the vibrant colours of idyllic beaches washed by the crystal-clear waters of the Caribbean Sea with the extraordinary beauty of a lush tropical interior, renowned for its intoxicating aromas of spices and the warm hospitality of its people.

Starting this season, a new base in Guadeloupe will offer the opportunity to sail among the Leeward Islands, with departures from St. Martin, Antigua or Guadeloupe, three stunning gateways to exploring this beautiful Caribbean archipelago. St. Martin captivates visitors with its unique blend of French and Dutch cultures, white sandy beaches and crystal-clear waters. Antigua, famous for its 365 beaches, offers breathtaking scenery and sheltered bays, ideal for sailing. Guadeloupe, with its lush tropical landscapes and majestic volcanoes, offers a unique combination of adventure and natural beauty. Each of the Leeward Islands has its own distinctive charm, waiting to be discovered.
